

SOROSIS UNDERSKIRTS

Are the most easily fitted Petticoats made. In fact all that is necessary to make one fit is to draw and tie the drawstring and the demi-yoke does the rest. No matter whether the wearer be slender or stout the demi-yoke adjusts itself to the form, and gives that graceful bearing so necessary for the proper fitting of an overskirt. There is no pocket-hole in a Sorosis underskirt to show under garments. No raw edges in a Sorosis underskirt to level or fray out. Insist on getting a Sorosis when you buy your next Petticoat.

Special prices on Sorosis underskirts, 98c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $2.00, $2.50 and $2.25.

INSANE ON RELIGION.

He Declared He Was Commissioned to Kill Minister.

Catskill, N. Y., Jan. 22.—The Rev. H. I. Hoag, pastor of the Methodist church at Leeds, this county, was assaulted and forced to seek safety in flight Saturday by Philip Robbins of South Cairo, who is said to be suffering from religious mania.

Robbins daily had attended the revival meetings recently conducted by the Rev. Mr. Hoag. Saturday on opening the door of his house in response to loud knocking, the clergyman was set upon by Robbins, who shouted "God has commanded me to kill you." Striking Mr. Hoag heavily with his clenched hand, Robbins was preparing to follow up the attack when the minister managed to push him aside and make his escape from the parsonage.

Robbins, who is proprietor of a small boarding house at South Cairo, known as the Marion House, was lodged in jail here later by undersheriff Post and on examination by physicians was declared insane. He was committed to the state insane asylum at Poughkeepsie.

HE DIDN'T CARE.

Declared That Waterbury Asylum Was Good Enough for Him.

Burlington, Jan. 22.—Ernest Rogers, who was arrested Friday because he had flourished a revolver and threatened to shoot a soldier who had robbed him, was examined at the jail Saturday to determine whether he was insane. The examination was made by Dr. J. M. Clarke of this city and Dr. A. L. Bingham of Williston, who had been retained by S. Tilley, overseer of the poor at Williston, to whom Rogers' case had been referred because the respondent was a resident of that town.

As the result of the examination he will spend a time, at least, in the insane hospital at Waterbury. Rogers was utterly unconcerned because of his arrest and since being in jail has whistled all the tunes he ever heard. When asked if he liked to be where he was he replied: "I don't care. Just as soon be here as anywhere."

He is not violently insane, but his actions of late have been so peculiar and his mind has been on the subject of shooting, so it was thought that a course of treatment for insanity might improve his condition.

Since being struck on the head with a hammer some months ago, Rogers has acted in a peculiar manner and it is thought the blow had the effect of unbalancing his mind. Rogers was taken to Waterbury Saturday by Constable F. J. Croto.

The national colors, the regimental colors and standard of the 15th cavalry, guidons, sabres, ferns and flowers made up the decorations of the gymnasium. The 15th cavalry orchestra, in full dress cavalry uniforms, with their gold trimmings, peeping out behind a bank of ferns, furnished the music.

The officers in their full dress uniforms, the women in evening dress, mingled with the black evening dress of the civilians, presented a lively spectacle. The cotillion was led by Capt.
